HIGH-REVENUE IN-HOME CARE SERVICES BUSINESS (BRISBANE, QUEENSLAND) BFB4297

PROVEN IN-HOME CARE BUSINESS | STRONG REVENUE PERFORMANCE

An outstanding opportunity is now available to acquire a well-established in-home care and nursing services business operating across a select territory in Brisbane, Queensland. Operating as a registered provider for both NDIS (Disability) and Support at Home (Aged Care) funding, the business provides a broad range of in-home support services, including personal and lifestyle assistance, companionship, domestic support, transport assistance, respite care, specialised aged and complex care, and clinical nursing services—allowing it to cater to a wide client base with varying care needs and flexible service requirements.

The operation is supported by a professional and qualified team of registered and enrolled nurses, along with experienced care staff who deliver services directly to clients. The business is centrally managed from a modern, professional office base on the northern side of Brisbane, providing a practical and efficient hub to support operations across the territory.

A seamless transition is assured, with full training and handover provided by the current owners, alongside a structured franchisor training program and ongoing operational support. This proven,
