

A FULLY OPERATIONAL EHS & SUSTAINABILITY PLATFORM AWAITS BFB4319

BUILT BY INDUSTRY LEADERS | PROVEN BY ENTERPRISE CLIENTS | READY FOR YOU

EHS On Demand is a genuinely rare opportunity to acquire a fully built, revenue-generating online compliance marketplace operating across both the private and government sectors. Established in 2020 and developed by one of the industry's most credentialed compliance professionals—with leadership experience at global organisations including Netflix, Uber, and Dell—the platform was engineered from day one to serve a market with an urgent and legally mandated need. EHS On Demand has been utilized by prominent ASX and NASDAQ companies; meaning this is a proven digital asset with the hard work done for you.

Unlike most digital businesses for sale, this platform generates revenue from two distinct streams — software subscriptions and professional services — capturing a structural spending pattern unique to the compliance industry. The business is being sold as part of a planned corporate divestment, meaning it is operationally intact, well-structured, and primed for a smooth transition to a new owner.

- Fully operational platform available for immediate acquisition with complete IP transfer
- EHS On Demand has been utilized by prominent ASX and NASDAQ clients since 2020
- Dual revenue model — SaaS subscriptions plus professional services marketplace
- Founded and developed by a globally recognised ESG and compliance expert
- Low-cost, scalable WordPress architecture with minimal maintenance overhead
- Professional services represent approximately 96% of total
